Ontario Farmers Protest Against any Further Tariff Increases

Ottawa, Nov. 13.—Hon. Prefontaine, Minister of Marine, leaves for England and a week from tomorrow to discuss with the Imperial authorities a naval militia for Canada.

The farmers of Ontario appeared before the tariff commission in Toronto today and made a strong protest against any tariff increases. They held that any industry that cannot succeed with a 30 or 35 per cent. tariff ought to be a natural and easy death.

CALGARY FIGHT BEGUN

The examination of the challenged voters in Calgary began on Saturday before Returning Officer McLaren and Magistrate Walker. Each candidate was supported by an imposing battery of legal advisers. Mr. Short withdrew appeals against ten of the voters whose ballots had been objected to. After some discussion court adjourned until yesterday when the objected ballots from Division 3 were taken up. The examination will probably continue for several days and is not expected to affect Mr. Cushing's election.

C. N. R. Construction Gangs Now Working From the Bridge to Edmonton

Ties have been laid for a long distance from the Fort, and the steel will be laid much more rapidly than previously. For once a week what has been shipped from the Fort by the C. N. INSTRUCTIVE LECTURE

Rev John McNeill Lectured to a Large Audience Last Evening on the Making of the Nation

The citizens of Edmonton turned out in large numbers last night to hear Rev. John McNeill lecture on the "Making of the Nation."

Hon. A. C. Rutherford, occupied the chair, and Rev. C. W. Corey, of Strathcona, was also on the platform.

The singing of a familiar hymn, and prayer by Rev. Mr. Corey, opened the program. The choir then rendered an anthem very acceptably.

Premier Rutherford, in his introductory remarks, said that the subject of Mr. McNeill's lecture was a fitting one at this time, when Alberta was about to enter upon her career as a new Province. It was always considered glorious, he said, to die for one's country. It was just as glorious to live for one's country. We could not all die for our country, but we could all live for our country, by carrying out the duties of citizenship, in having good government and good laws, and seeing that those laws were properly carried out. He would not make a long chairman's address. He had not heard this lecturer before, and thought he was ready to receive advice as to the making of the nation.

Mr. McNeill said he felt like congratulating himself on being in the presence of an audience like this, and having the promise of their attention to a subject so important, particularly at a time when it was pressed over by the first Premier of the new province of Alberta. No matter what political stripes they wore, he said, no matter whether they agreed or disagreed with the policy for which Mr. Rutherford stood, they all knew that he was a man who lived a strong, pure, good moral life. After all, man was the chief figure in the making and moulding of a nation. Probably a week ago they would not have invited him to Edmonton to give them any advice on the matter.

Mr. McNeill's lecture throughout was highly intellectual, and was at once entertaining and instructive. He dealt with the subject from four standpoints, taking the four great powers which influence the making of a nation. First, that which comes from beneath, or nature; then that from the outside, or other nations; that which comes from within, or the interior; and, lastly, that which comes from above, or Providence.

At the close of the lecture, a vote of thanks to the lecturer, was moved by Messrs. Geo. McLeod and H. H. Hull, and was tendered in a most hearty manner. Mr. McNeill replying in happy style. The meeting closed with the singing of the national anthem.

A GRATUITOUS INSULT TO THE ELECTORATE

No election but has its post-political campaign of protests and protestations about how and why the battle was won. Frequently there is more of heat than truth revealed in these belated utterances and the result is usually just as it may be the signs are that the first Provincial election in Alberta is not to be without an aftermath of retrospective controversy. And in this particular case, reason may be found for protesting the discussion which should ordinarily end on polling day in the fact that the Provincial election in Saskatchewan is pending, that that election is being held under largely the same conditions and may therefore be expected to be conducted along somewhat similar lines and on somewhat similar issues to the late contest in Alberta. In so far as the clear understanding of the forces which determined the result in Alberta may conduce by comparison or contrast to a clear understanding of the issues and forces likely to operate in Saskatchewan the discussion may be not without public concern.

So far this second discussion in Alberta has been conducted mainly along one of the lines on which the Opposition made their campaign against the Government: the imputation of Ottawa dominance. Hardly had the smoke of battle cleared sufficiently to reveal the havoc when the Opposition press still gasping for breath began to cry "machine." As yet the cry has been only a cry but as our friends recover wind we doubt not it will be increased in volume and regulated in time till it assumes something of the proportion and complexion it enjoyed when rolled upon the electorate a few weeks since as one of the journalistic choruses of the real campaign. When these gentlemen have had time to work out the details and fill in the coloring we shall doubtless see the Premier of the Dominion depicted as an arch-fiend yattering a cloven hoof on the breast of fallen Liberty while the Rutherford administration dance horripops on the prostrate form. This at any rate appears to be about the only disreputable misrepresentation which has not been applied to the cause of the Opposition was probably an oversight which will be corrected as soon as discovered.

Some such florid imagery appears also to have possessed the Hamilton press of Saskatchewan and is being given free course and all encouragement to magnify in the campaign now in progress in that Province. The product so far is quite as interesting psychologically and quite as meaningless politically as anything yet produced under the same sinister influence by the Opposition press of Alberta. And in bulk it probably exceeds the Alberta output. So far as can be judged from a distance the question of the brand of Provincial Government Saskatchewan is to have during the next four years appeared to have been pushed into the background as one of those secondary matters which may be interesting enough when there is nothing of importance on hand; even the nature of the school system which is to be continued in that Province and of the disposition which is to be made of the liberal Federal subsidies, appear to have been discarded as matters of minor detail that the undivided efforts of the Opposition might be devoted to the execution of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the general and particular vilification of Liberalism Federal and Provincial. Neither the respect usually paid in British dominions to the representative of His Majesty nor the deference due to distinguished Parliamentary service avails to restrain the frenzied fancies of the disaffected and alike Lieutenant-Governor Ryegat and Premier Scott are hounded by the interested and the infuriated paragraphs. Both are held up as fellow-conspirators with the Federal Government in seeking in some vague manner to prevent the free expression of public opinion by the working of the "machine."

It does not appear to have occurred to the Opposition press in either Province that the reflection cast upon the people of the Alberta and Saskatchewan by this imputation is not of the highest quality nor one likely to secure their enthusiastic approval. The gratuitous suggestion that the electors of the West are susceptible to "machine" influence is on a par with both the preaching and the practice of the Opposition party, but it is one which has never merited nor found favor with the public at large, especially with that portion of the public who claim allegiance to Liberalism. The contention of Liberalism is "That the intelligent opinion of the people is the true and just source of political power." Upon this principle they have stood unflinchingly the assaults of the Opposition for generations and in its defence they stand today as enthusiastically as at any period. It is the belief of Liberals that the people are capable of judging, that they have the right to judge, and that the expression of public opinion can be neither perverted nor frustrated by political machinations. But the Opposition have no such confidence in the integrity of the electorate. It is their avowed belief that the people of the West are amenable to the domination of a "machine."

FINING FOR HOME

Spokanean-Review, Spokane, Wash.: H. Harris, of Cheney, who went into the Alberta country a short time ago, writes from Strathcona under date of October 17, strongly advising people in eastern Washington against moving into that territory.

Mr. Harris says in a letter to the Spokanean-Review: "They claim that there is no wind here, out that is not true. The wind is blowing here so hard that a fellow comes rattling like a rattle with twelve rattles on. They also claim that cattle are running all winter on the range, that also is untrue. People who have been in the country for some time inform me that they have seen it 55 and even 70 degrees below zero, and the ground frozen to twelve feet, but still the cattle are running. I have been out here six weeks, and saw on October 15, farmers from Fargo, N.D., who had been looking over land for the past six days until the cars would arrive with their effects, and came into Strathcona and never unloaded their cars, but sent them back again. "A great deal of the land was taken up here two years ago, but any amount of it has been cancelled, and never re-taken. Many have taken about October, build a shack, stay over winter to the 1st of May, and then return to Spokane and the Western country and work through the winter. They repeat this until they get a patent and then sell out when they can. In the country around Lacombe all the crops have been frozen out and the most of it has not been hauled out for the last five years. To take land and must hold down a claim in the wilderness with no neighbors for many miles but timber wolves here and there perhaps an Indian or two. Get sick once and you will be flushed for good. "It is almost impossible to get work on the farmers do not employ help, and the little work that is to be had in the towns is given to Russians, there are lots of them and they work cheap."

The foregoing is probably too self-condemnatory to need serious comment. The substantial advantages of Alberta are too well known among informed Americans for such efforts to work lasting harm to the reputation of the country or to have any serious effect on the immigration movement from the western States. As nearly as we can make out this wandering Chartist very commendable—a "malady" very commendable to his affections, but liable to produce a haze of sentiment through which the dissatisfied spectator looks out upon a landscape tinted blue. The readiness with which he grasps at unsupported statements discrediting the country and the apparent horror with which he shrinks from the loneliness of pioneer life reveal an undercurrent of remorse at his own waywardness and a longing which knows no respite for the fair fields and fair maidens of Palestine. After all a visitor probably finds what he comes to see, and the inherent conviction that one has left the fairest land on earth is not a good spirit in which to search for opportunities or advantages in a new country.

With no wish to neutralize the splendid efforts of the Immigration Department and governed solely by the tenderest solicitude for his own peace of mind we would advise Mr. Harris to go back to Cheney and stay there. The Canadian West is large enough for millions and resourceful enough for anyone who keeps his feet on the ground, but no land is large enough nor any country rich enough to breathe the gentle spirit of contentment over the fretful yearnings of a homesick soul.

Walter's Mill Cut 8,000,000 Feet During the Summer—Rushing Work on Water-Works System

Strathcona, Nov. 11.—Walter's mill is now closed for the season. It is understood the cut has been about 8,000,000 feet.

A gang of men are busy opening up the coal mine in the bank north of Walter's mill. The coal which has so far been mined is of good quality and the seam is about five feet thick. A steam hoisting plant is being installed.

Mr. Doeland of Halton, Ont., who has been much through the Republic to the south and lived for some time in the Hawaiian Islands is in town. He is much pleased with Alberta and says it excels in many respects the places which he has visited.

Chief Powers of the Electric Light Co. and men are busy engaged making arrangements for connections with the Edmonton line. He is anxiously awaiting the arrival of wire to make the necessary connections and says he expects to have all done early next week.

Mr. Tom. McAmmon of Vegreville was in town last week at the Royal. He has been engaged of late in passenger and freight carrying between Vegreville and this town.

Breakdowns for the water mains are being made along the hill south of Saskatchewan Avenue leading to the power house. The work is being pressed vigorously so that it may be finished before winter.

Mr. Sarbrook, late of Strathcona, has his farm stock out about three miles away in the country, awaiting the arrival of spring, when the purpose is to move out to his farm near Hastings River in the vicinity of Tadoussac. He reports that the G.T.P. Co. have run three surveys quite close to his place and that the present indications are that there will be a railway line and possibly a station on his farm.

Mr. Sullivan has disposed of his restaurant business to Mr. Armistead who takes possession in a few days.

Strathcona, Nov. 10.—Mr. Williams, Hillsdale, in town. He has travelled much in Uncle Sam's domains and has lately been at Dawson City. He has considerable land at Hillsdale and is well pleased with his location.

Mr. Solberg, of Bardo, Alberta, is in town now. He has been busy fixing up machinery for several parties there.

Mr. Lewis is at the Dominion. He has a large high school which was there last night in Burbe's yard.

Mr. Labell and a staff of men are fixing up new machinery and making other changes in the Brackman-Kor mill here.

THE C.P.R. IN POLITICS

(Calgary Alberta)
If any elector in the riding of Calgary or the riding of Gleichen had any doubt about the intimate relationship existing between the C. P. R. and the Conservative party in the city of Calgary, and in the Province of Alberta, he is certain now. Whatever may have been the intention of the various telegraphic orders of neutrality, or the various interviews in the press, it is certain now the same instructions, as far as any effect they had, were treated as a joke.

J. S. Dennis, the assistant to the second vice-president of the C. P. R. who issued the order of peace and neutrality to all intents and purposes was the organizer of the Conservative candidate in Calgary. During the last few days of the campaign, his office was the Conservative committee rooms. Or the day of the election, he was one of the scrutineers at one of the polls and he was the person who, at one time, attempted to close one of the polls. William Pearce another official of the C.P.R. was agent for the Conservative candidate at one of the polls in Gleichen.

But the offence of the C.P.R. was much more serious than that. For these people to take part in elections under ordinary circumstances, might be in bad taste, but it would not be unfair, though in this case, when the C.P.R. announced that the officials would be neutral, a different course of action might have been expected. In this country in days gone by, when William Whyte made a promise, the people of Alberta were convinced that he intended to keep it, and in days past no official dared violate it.

But that which was most unfair, was the successful effort that the C. P. R. made to disfranchise a large number of their Liberal employees. Here is one instance, and is a sample of the way it was done. Douglas McNeill and crew all Conservatives, were due to leave for the north on the passenger on Thursday morning. Mr. Tennant and crew, all Liberals, were due to lay off in Calgary on that day. At the last moment the order was changed, and McNeill and his party were given orders to stop over in Calgary, while Tennant and crew were sent north. That is but one instance and there were very many. It is esti-

C. N. R. PROSPEROUS

At the third annual meeting of the Canadian Northern Railway Company, held in Toronto on Saturday afternoon, the directors presented their report for the year ending June 30, 1905, which shows the following results:

Gross Earnings:

From passenger traffic $ 665,935.85

From freight traffic 3,661,530.77

From express, mail, telegraph, dining and sleeping cars, including profits from elevators and other subsidiary companies 461,745.34

Total gross earnings $ 4,529,211.96

Working expenses $ 2,664,729.64

Net earnings $ 1,864,482.32

Surplus for the year $ 416,702.94

The gross earnings show an increase of $947,536.27 or 20.92 per cent. over the previous year's figures; and the net earnings show an increase of $123,552.00 or 37.75 per cent. in excess of the figures for the fiscal year ending 30th June 1904. The working expenses were 67.05 per cent. of the gross earnings of the railway proper, and 45.12 per cent. of the gross earnings from all sources.

In pursuance and under the authority of the shareholders, four per cent. perpetual consolidated debenture stock to the amount of $6,000,000 was sold during the year and the proceeds applied for the general purpose of the company.

With a view to consolidate the various issues of bonds created at different dates secured on separate sections of the railway, the directors, with the consent of the government of the province of Manitoba secured the necessary legislation authorizing the issue of a new 4 per cent. consolidated debenture bond guaranteed as to principal and interest by the province of Manitoba. Provision is made for the exchange of the bonds issued in respect of existing mileage for bonds of the consolidated issue at par and provision is also made for the guarantee of principal and interest of further issues of bonds at the rate of $10,000,000 per mile in respect of the construction of future lines which the legislature of Manitoba may from time to time approve. The result of the exchange of the bonds on existing mileage is that the bonds on existing mileage secured at a charge on a portion of the company's line, they will upon making the exchange hold four per cent. consolidated debenture bonds secured by a general charge on the company's system within the province of Manitoba. A reference to the statement of fixed charges will show that the substantial amount of bonds has been exchanged.

The report adds: "The physical condition of your railway has been fully maintained and improved."

"A careful inspection of the country adjacent to the lines referred to has recently been made under the direction of your directors, and the report received not only seasons previous reports in respect to high quality and extent of land from which your railway will draw profitable traffic when settled upon but confirms the information that the number of settlers already located on lands tributary to the lines is very large, that they are of a superior class and that the number is increasing daily."

"The harvest just recently gathered promises to be the largest in the history of western Canada, and your railway is so situated that it will enjoy a substantial share in the movement of the grain to the lake ports."

"Your directors have again to record the fact that business conditions continue good and that the returns from the marketing of the crop referred to will enhance those continuous to the material advantage of every interest in Canada."

The condensed balance sheet shows that the cost of the railway and equipment to date is $55,533,853. The general assets include:

The Minnesota and Ontario Bridge Co. 4 1/2 per cent. first mortgage debenture bonds $ 180,000.00

Capital stock 100,000.00

The Minnesota and Ontario Bridge Co. 5 per cent. general mortgage bonds 250,000.00

Capital stock 40,000.00

The Lake Superior Terminal Co. Limited 5 per cent. mortgage gold bonds 300,000.00

Capital stock 500,000.00

The Canadian Northern Telegraph Co. 5 per cent. general mortgage bonds 300,000.00

Capital stock 500,000.00

The Winnipeg Land Co. Limited 5 per cent. first mortgage gold bonds 300,000.00

Capital stock 100,000.00

Total $ 8,593,000.00

will soon be needed, and no doubt they will go with a rush.

If you want a first class up to date Cast Iron Range that has been a winner for many years, we have the "Happy Thought." There is more of this Range in use than any other one Range in Canada, and no person has ever heard of a poor one. Then, if you want an all steel and malleable iron range, we have the "Monarch." You cannot break this range, and it has a mirror polished top which makes it a thing of beauty to look at as well as to use.

For any up to date line of heating stoves we think we have them all beat. It is not a case of you having to take what we have; our assortment justifies us in saying you can get just what you want from us.

We have from the smallest to the largest heating stoves in any style and for any purpose, to burn both coal and wood, or both. The prices are made to suit the pockets of all, and while we make only a very small profit on each stove we think the quantity we sell justifies us in saying that we can sell on so close a margin and still hold our own. We have everything in Stove Trimmings, and first class Mechanics to deliver and put them up. Do not waste time in looking all over the city, but come direct to us.

C. N. R. YARDS

Fort Saskatchewan Reporter: The steel on the C. N. railway has been laid on the main line to the bridge, and now work is proceeding very rapidly on the switches to the west of the station, which is expected to be completed by tonight.

To the west of the station men are busy at work sinking a large well to be used for the purpose of filling the large tank now in course of erection, immediately west of the station.

Still a little further west stands the fine elevator No. 7, of the Brackman-Ker Milling Co. The size of the building is 35 x 36 feet on the ground, with 47 feet of cribbing. From the ground to the top of the cupola is 80 feet. With the exception of the scales, this elevator has just been completed. It has fourteen lifts with a capacity of 40,000 bushels. A 12 horse power gasoline engine from the Fairbanks-Morse Co. has been installed in the engine room. The elevator is also equipped with a 12 horse power Monitor No. 6 cleaner.

In order to give our readers an idea how fast grain can be handled by this elevator, we might mention that from farmer's wagons grain can be taken, weighed, cleaned and a car loaded in 20 minutes.

The elevator will be open for the purchase of both wheat and oats as soon as the scales arrive and are put in.

FINE CHURCH HOME.

OF BAPTIST CONGREGATION

Rapid Progress of the Work in Edmonton — Congregation Twelve Years Old

Twelve years ago when Edmonton was just beginning to be recognized as a place that might have a great future the Baptists of Edmonton organized a congregation and called Rev. Alex. McDonald, of Winnipeg, as their pastor. Two years later the old church at the corner of Howard avenue and Rice street was built where services have been held until the present time. A year later Mr. McDonald was called to Strathcona and Rev. F. B. Freeman became pastor. For five years Mr. Freeman was in charge, and was succeeded by Rev. A. M. McDonald, the present pastor. Mr. McDonald has been here now for four years, and it is in a large measure due to his untiring energy that the church has progressed so rapidly and that the splendid structure dedicated on Sunday was built.

The new building is of brick and stone and occupies a splendid site on the corner of Second street and Athabasca avenue. The building is almost square, the main entrance being under the large tower facing second street.

There is also an entrance at the south side of the church. Over the door at the main entrance, in stained glass, is the inscription "First Baptist Church". The entrance to the Sabbath school room which will be in the basement is on Athabasca avenue. The interior of the church is beautifully finished and the auditorium is large, having a seating capacity of over 700. The seats which are expected to arrive in a few weeks, will be of quivered oak.

On the platform is a small reading desk and handsome pulpit chair. To the left of the platform is the baptistry beautifully finished and which is entered by steps leading from the rear.

It is expected that a new pipe organ will be installed early next spring. Altogether the church is probably the handsomest in the city, and the Baptist people and their popular young pastor are worthy of all credit for this handsome addition to the fine churches of Edmonton.

LOCAL.

—Probs: Fair, stationary, or a little lower temperature.

—Mr. Leon Bureau leaves shortly for a trip to France.

—Rev. John McNeill went to Calgary today where he lectures this evening.

—N. C. Cunningham, representing the Burtin-Gillis Co. of Hamilton, is in the city.

—Kenneth Pickell has installed a show window in his jewelry store on Jasper avenue.

—An oyster supper will be held at the residence of Geo. Emerson Ings on Friday, Nov. 13th for his threshing crew. All the people that he threshed for are all invited to attend.

—The adjourned cases which came up for trial at the Supreme Court this morning were: King vs. Cairney, Sheriff. Cairney was let off on suspended sentence. King vs. McFee. Case dismissed.

—The Iroquois Lacrosse Club will hold a smoking concert in Sandison's hall on Thursday evening, 10th inst. The best local talent has been secured and there will be a program of music, vocal and instrumental.

—One of the linemen of the Bell Telephone Co., while engaged in stringing a cable on Jasper avenue opposite Reilston Bros. store yesterday, fell from the wires on which he was working. Fortunately he escaped serious injury.

—Wm. Smith, of Athabasca Landing, was in town today, and brought to the Bulletin office winter parsnips grown by him, which are fifteen inches in circumference. They are fine specimens and are on exhibition in the Bulletin window.

—The Ladies' Aid of McDougall Methodist church will be at home to all the ladies of the congregation on Thursday afternoon from 3.30 to 6 in the lecture room of the church, and in the evening all the young people of the congregation are invited to be present from 8 to 10.

—A party composed of Rev. Father Jan, Rev. Father Hetu, Messrs. Leitch, O'Leary and J. S. Lessard were driving through the Sny Plain in an Heaver yesterday, when they came across an enormous lynx, lying in wait for rabbits. Father Jan shot the cat and brought it to town.

—The Lethbridge Herald is the latest venture in Alberta journalism. The publishers are Messrs F. E. Simpson and A. S. Bennett. The first issue of the Herald is a very creditable production and a continuance of its quality should ensure for the Herald a prosperous career.

—Albertan's enjoying beautiful Indian summer weather will appreciate the difference indicated by the following dispatch: Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Ottawa is having its first real snow storm this morning. The wind is blowing a gale and several inches of snow has fallen. There are no sleighs out as yet and wheeled vehicles are having a hard time.

—At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Presbyterian church last evening it was decided to ask Rev. Mr. Ewing, superintendent for the Presbyterian church of the work amongst Chinese in British Columbia, to occupy the pulpit of the church here in the name of Rev. Dr. McQueen, rev. Mr. Adair, who has been in charge for the past month or more will take charge of the new mission society, of which he is to be pastor.

—Okotoks Review: Duncan Marshall made a great impression at the Calgary meeting on Saturday evening. In his speech he vindicated himself against the accusations which appeared in the Herald charging him with being allied with Cap. Sullivan. The editor of this paper has known Mr. Marshall for many years and can safely vouch for his integrity, and it is to be regretted that he should be stigmatized as a grafter, hoodler and carpet bagger. We predict that Mr. Marshall will some day occupy a position of prominence in this province, for he has considerable ability, and we firmly believe is absolutely trustworthy and honorable.

—At a meeting of the men of the McDougall church congregation, called by the pastor Sunday evening, the 5th instant, after the evening service it was decided to form a men's organization in connection with that church. The meeting for organization is to be held tonight in the lecture room of the church. All men interested are invited to be present. The general purpose of the club is to promote mutual fellowship and to discuss questions of interest to men. Debates upon live questions will be a distinctive feature of the work of the Club. Arrangements will be made for occasional addresses by public men upon matters of national and civic interest.

PERSONAL.

Ex-Mayor Short returned from Ottawa last evening.

Arthur Poole, of the Carswell Law Book Co., Toronto, is in town.

Mrs. A. E. Jackson will receive on the third Friday of each month in the Houston Block.

R. O. Matheson, formerly of the Raymond Chronicle will enter the service of the Provincial Government.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Mr. G. Clark, manager of the Edmonton Glove Co., met with a very serious accident while driving down the hill toward the station this morning. He was on his way to Ponoka with a heavy load of gloves in a covered rig. Attached to the hind wheel was a shoe brake. When near the turn at the foot of the hill the rope attached to the shoe broke, allowing the wagon to run forward upon the horses. The frightened team started to run, and in making the turn at the bottom of the hill ran against the sidewalk. Mr. Clark who had been walking beside the team, was jammed between the wagon and the sidewalk. He slipped down between the wheels, the hind wheel passing over his shoulders. Dr. McInnis was called, and the injured man conveyed to his home on Fifth street. The injuries are extremely painful but not dangerous.
